Rehabilitation of Offenders Act (ROA) 1974 As an employer providing services to vulnerable adults, this employment is exempt from the said Act and employees are not therefore entitled to withhold information about 'spent' convictions. We will require either a Standard or Enhanced Disclosure check from the Disclosure and Barring Service and therefore need to have information from you regarding any previous, existing or pending cautions, convictions, reprimands or final warnings (excluding youth cautions, reprimands or warnings) which are not protected as defined by the said Act. For any positions carrying out 'Regulated Activity' i.e. those providing or supervising personal care/support to vulnerable adults will be subject to an Enhanced Disclosure check including adult barred lists. However for the majority of Head Office based positions we only require a Basic Disclosure Check and you are therefore only required to provide information about 'Unspent' convictions. Therefore can you please confirm the following: Do you have any 'unspent' convictions? (All positions including finance, nousing, human resources, corporate services, facilities) Do you have any 'spent' or 'unspent' cautions, convictions, reprimands or final warnings? (Scheme based positions only, including care & support, catering, domestic, laundry, maintenance/premises officers) Have you ever been disqualified from working with vulnerable adults? (All positions involved in the provision, supervision or management of care and support only) Yes No No Yes No No Yes No No Have you ever been disqualified from working with vulnerable adults? If you are unsure about what type of disclosure is required for the position you are applying for please refer to the job advert. If you are not sure about whether your convictions are spent please contact NACRO for further advice www.nacro.org.uk.

You may be asked to provide more details regarding any declaration to the interview panel if selected for interview. Please note that any declaration of a criminal record will not necessarily prevent you from being offered the position as each case is considered on its merits. However, failure to disclose any caution, conviction, reprimand or final warning (excluding youth cautions, reprimands or warnings) could result in the withdrawal of any job offer, disciplinary action being taken or dismissal.
